English houses into competing territories, the new league divides the Caribbean, Central American, and North American federations into a shared battlefield where every point can tip the balance. Each team earns three points for a win, one for a draw, and none for a loss. Tiebreakers follow a strict hierarchy: This system ensures that a team cannot rely solely on a strong defensive record; offensive output can become the deciding factor for a playâ€™off berth. After the first two windows, traditional leaders such as the United States, Mexico, and Canada sit near the top, but several surprise packages have emerged. Teams like Costa Rica and Honduras have collected enough points to challenge for automatic qualification, while Caribbean nations such as Jamaica and Haiti are fighting to stay within reach of the playâ€™off slot. The Futbol Americas duo Sebastian Salazar and Herculez Gomez are joined by Alexis Nunes to go through the
