California's written exam consists of 46 multiple-choice questions. To pass, test-takers must correctly answer at least 38 questions, translating to a 83% success rate. The exam covers traffic laws, safe driving practices, and state-specific regulations. Unlike some other states that use a simple 70% threshold, California's 83% figure is relatively high, reflecting the DMV's emphasis on a comprehensive understanding of road rules. The DMV's scoring algorithm assigns a value of one point per correct answer; no penalty exists for wrong answers or blanks. Thus, the score is straightforward: number of correct responses divided by total questions. Because the test is timed 48 minutes, you're encouraged to balance speed with accuracy. A quick misstep can lower your overall percentage, pushing you below the 83% threshold.
