with edge-of-your-seat moments. Older thrillers such as Mindhunter or Stranger Things often provide a richer atmosphere thanks to larger budgets and longer development cycles. Netflix's newer entries compensate with agility: they are released in a single burst, allowing binge-watchers to finish a season in one sitting. However, this speed can mean less narrative depth, occasional plot holes, and a reliance on shock value over sustained character arcs. For viewers who prefer a slow-burn experience, the newer titles may feel too fast-paced.
